BANKER LOOKING FOR FIREMAN WHO SAVED WIFE

Chicago, April 15.—Fireman James A Joyce is in hiding. Louis B. Clarke, a banker is looking for him with what he describe as a "search warrant."

The situation is due to an act of heroism on the part of the fireman which called forth the plaudits of thousands of the Loop district who saw him stop a runaway horse at the imminent risk of his own life, thereby saving two women, who seemed doomed to death or injury. One was the wife of Mr. Clarke and it is the modesty of the firemen in secluding himself that has aroused the financier's determination to find, "even if it necessitates a trip with a search warrant."

Joyce was sitting with a newspaper and a pipe in front of his quarters when the runaway, drogging a light cab, dushed by. In a flash, the pipe dropped, paper hurled to one side, and his chair overturned behind him, Fireman Joyce made his leap. During the next few moments the excited crowds witnessed a spectacular rescue of two moments from what had appeared to be Cut and bruised, besmudged and besmeared, he disentangled himself from the horse's harness, saw to it that the women were lifted out and taken care of and then hastened back into his company's quarters and hid himself.

I have used them on many occasions during the past five years when suffering from attacks of kidney trouble and backsche and they never fall to give the most satisfactory results. I think I can unhesitatingly recomend the remedy to others suffering from kidney trouble. I inherited my kidney trouble and suffered for many years. Sharp pains passed through my back and loins and there was a weakness of my kidneys. I procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at F. J. Hill's drug store and they gave me relief at once.
